Welcome Officer Dominic Swinney – our newest officer who came to the FTPD Team as a lateral hire.

Officers attended training at the range and completed annual requalification on pistols, rifles, and shotguns.

Det. Williams attended a 3-day course on cell phone data analysis at the Columbus Police Academy. This training will help investigators investigate cases involving cell phone data and cellular carriers.

Sgt. McCroskey was patrolling (OVI Grant) and located an OVI driver who crashed into the median wall on westbound SR129. The driver had a loaded firearm in the car and his BAC result was a .287. He was charged with OVI and Improper Handling of Firearms in a Motor Vehicle (F5). All charges are pending in Area II Court.

Officer Smith conducted a follow-up investigation and identified two suspects involved in a forgery/theft at the Sherwin-Williams store. Smith signed warrants on both individuals for Forgery and Theft.

Sgt. McCroskey arrested a 16-year-old male with Pandering Obscenity Involving a Minor (F4). This charge arose from an Internet Crimes Against Children (ICAC) referral to our agency. The charge is pending in Juvenile Court.

The BC Grand Jury indicted Ann Mayers for (1) count of Aggravated Robbery (F1) with a 3-year-gun specification attached, plus a second charge of Tampering with Evidence (F3). Mayers is the 74-year-old woman who robbed the AurGroup Credit Union in April 2024.

Evening shift officers responded to the area of Lenox Road near Fairfax Avenue for a male attempting to pry open the backdoor to a house with a knife. Officers located a male matching the description of the suspect and he refused to identify himself and ran from officers. Officers quickly caught him one block over and learned he had four outstanding warrants. He was also charged with obstructing official business and booked into BC Jail.

Evening shift officers responded to Walmart for a robbery in progress. A male suspect stole hundreds of dollars worth of merchandise and pulled out a handgun on Loss Prevention employees. The suspect ran away before officers were dispatched. Officers extensively searched the surrounding area, but the suspect was gone. The Investigation Section has since identified the suspect and issued a warrant for Aggravated Robbery (F1).

Evening shift officers responded to the Burlington Coat Factory for a theft in progress. A male and female loaded several large bags of stolen merchandise into a U-Haul truck and fled the area. Officers located the vehicle on SR4-Bypass and attempted to stop the truck; however, the suspects fled from the officers. The officers terminated the pursuit to ensure the public's safety and this case remains under investigation.
